Times are from the original sample schedule. We'll confirm ferry departures and visits for your travel dates.

Day 1: Muhu and northern Saaremaa

10:15	Ferry from Virtsu to Kuivastu.
10:40	Arrive at Kuivastu harbour, meet the guide and start the tour.
	Sights and stops - Koguva is both a living village and a museum. Stops include Tooma, the birthplace of writer Juhan Smuul, the old village school and Muhu handicrafts at Välja Farm. - Laasu Farm: ostriches, emus, zebras, alpacas and kangaroos. The plan also includes an opportunity to buy products made from ostrich leather, feathers or eggs. - The Väike Väin causeway: a roughly 3 km road across the strait.
13:15	Lunch in Orissaare if desired, with advance ordering available.

	Sights and stops - The ruins of Maasilinn: a medieval castle of the Livonian Order, with excavated and partially restored sections. - Angla's group of five windmills and the heritage centre opened in 2011. The distinctive centre is built of Selgase dolomite. - Karja Church: a small medieval church. - Panga cliff: Saaremaa's highest coastal cliff.
18:30	Arrive at Värava Farm in Selgase for the overnight stay. Dinner can be ordered in advance. At the farm there is a campfire area, barbecue, swings, a trampoline, a zip line, ball games and disc golf. The sauna and hot tub can also be booked.

Day 2: Western Saaremaa and Sõrve

08:30	Breakfast at Värava Farm if ordered in advance.
09:15	The tour begins.
	Sights and stops - Pidula Manor and park: a classical manor house with its grounds. - Odalätsi springs: rising springs that feed the Pidula River. - Mihkli Farm Museum: a western Saaremaa farm founded during the Great Northern War and now a museum. - Kihelkonna's 13th-century church, freestanding bell tower and historic organ. - Viidumäe: Saaremaa's uplands, a nature reserve and a lookout tower.
14:00	Lunch at Lümanda Söögimaja, which serves Saaremaa dishes. Meals can be ordered in advance.
15:00	The tour continues.
	Sights and stops - The heritage road: a section of road with a mid-20th-century appearance. - The tip of Sõrve: the narrow peninsula stretching into the Gulf of Riga and its lighthouse. - Salme: the site of the Viking-age ship finds. - The Tehumardi battlefield and the story of the Second World War battle fought there. - Mändjala-Järve beach, with beach time if the weather allows.
18:00	Return to the accommodation. Dinner if ordered in advance.

Day 3: Kaali and Kuressaare

08:30	Breakfast at Värava Farm if ordered in advance.
09:15	The tour begins.

Arrangements and meals

- The guide introduces Saaremaa through local stories and legends.
- The original school-group plan allows free accommodation and breakfast for one teacher per ten pupils and a free place for the coach driver. The group leader is generally exempt from admission charges. Confirm these terms when requesting a quote.
- The group agrees on the meal choices together. In the evening guests can cook in the outdoor kitchen and use the barbecue if they prefer.
